Miss Edith Hartell
East Palestine
Ohio

when I got your telegram it was too late to do any thing that you spoke
of and I was so
shocked and hurt
by not knowing
of it that I did not even send
a ^{little} condolence or flowers and I have not been over yet. for Ma and Pepi's have got them all done in
me, and of course

My dear Sister: -
I have
letter received this A.M.
and was very glad
indeed to hear from
you. But judging
from it you have
not rec'd my last
letter saying I had not heard of Chas
death until many days after he was dead & buried. and

the telegram I recd
about six days
after it was sent. I got a postal from
the Western Union, they or you had it directed to 134 Prospect St instead of 134 Chestnut, I saw it any wonder I don't get my mail? and
you are perfectly
welcome to come here
and investigate if you so desire. The reason I am boarding
here now is because

the lady on Chestnut
moved away out to Sturville and Mrs
Sillitto & I could not go away out there.
Oh! I am not such a desperate character
as you & the rest
of ~~the~~ ^{the} folks are trying to make
me. If you want to know it.
I believe Phoebe was sick 9 or 10 days only.

you having a
couple of letters for
it and get well
for money sake, we
in the family
is enough.

I see my dear Charles
every day, and I love him, and
it has always been him I love.

How would you
like for us to come to see you in
a couple of weeks?

I don't suppose
though that you
would welcome us?
The weather here is
as warm as Singapore
my dear he has given me
three solitaires diamond rings each one nearly
the size of a pea and we together surrounded
by 13 chips diamonds.

Well I must
close but hope
to hear from you

Don't and quit
working so hard
mind, and get your rest, I
shall never say by by
Your Sister.

They don't now
care for me, at the same time I am
cared more than any one will ever be.
Think of Ma or Sister
not telling me know.
I never will forgive
them, never. I heard that Joe has "Nervous Prostration". Am so
sorry to hear of Frank's death. The poor bride.
No I have not yet
been to see any doctor.
I am grieved
awfully to hear of
